

'Harmfree'care

Safety Thermometer
'Classic' Summit and Next Generation Launch Event
 Thursday 23 October 2014

9.00	Arrival & Registrations
9.30	Welcome & opening remarks	Mike Durkin Head of Patient Safety NHS England
9.50	Igniting large scale change	Ruth May Lynn McIntyre Charlotte Johnston NHS England
10.20	Open & honest care: driving improvement	Gill Harris NHS England
10.40	Learning from the 'Classic' Data	Abigail Harrison Haelo Dave Shackley Salford Royal Kate Cheema Quality Observatory
11.10	Case study presentations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Engaging front line teams - Using the data - Improving safety
11.50	Power's pause for thought: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Key steps to improving safety • Introduction to the 'next generation' • Safety briefing 	Prof Maxine Power Director of Innovation & Improvement Salford Royal NHS Foundation Trust
12.30	Lunch
13.30 & 14.50	'Next Generation' Safety Thermometer breakout sessions. Please note: sessions will run 13.30 – 14.45 and 14.50 – 16.35, please select two to attend.	Medication Safety Maternity Mental Health Children and young people
16.45	What's next for safety? Sign up to safety and collaborative working	Sir David Dalton Chief Executive
17.00	Close	